Saint of the Week St. Helena - August 18

Although Helena was only the daughter of an innkeeper, a Roman general named Constantius Chlorus married her. The couple had one son, Constantine the Great. After 22 years of marriage, Constantius was named Caesar, and he immediately divorced Helena to “marry” the Emperor’s stepdaughter for political gain. Sixteen years later, Constantine became Emperor. He ordered that great honor to be given his mother, bestowing many honors upon her himself. It was St. Helena’s son, along with Emperor Licinius, who issued the now famous “Edict of Milan” permitting Catholicism in the Empire.

Helena converted to Catholicism about the same time, 312 A.D., when she was 63 years old. When 80 years old, St. Helena went to Palestine, where she found the True Cross. During her travels, her charity benefited soldiers, the poor, and the oppressed. She built churches in Bethlehem, Egypt, on the Mount of Olives, and on Mount Calvary. She died in Palestine during these activities and her body was returned to Rome.

St. Helena is named in the Roman Martyrology.
 St. Helena is the patroness of converts and difficult marriages.

St. Helena, pray for us!

Word of Life

"God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives."
